

A SCORE TO SETTLE

WYCOMBE WANDERERS have a special reason to do well when they take on Hitchin at Loakes Park tomorrow (Saturday) in the Rothmans Isthmian League. Earlier in the season they had much the better of the match at Topfield, forcing 16 corners to five — and yet crashed 2-0.

Wanderers were going through a difficult spell at that time and two goals in two minutes by Bunker and Archibald gave Hitchin an unlikely victory.

Since then, there has been a change of manager at Hitchin, Andy Williams taking over the reins. Williams played in goal against Wanderers at Hitchin and has not had the most successful season so far. He was appointed at Christmas but his first win only came three weeks ago when Hitchin beat Clapton 5-1. Then followed a 2-1 victory over Kingstonian but last week Town lost 2-1 to Carshalton in the R.I.L. Subsidiary Cup.

New players include Paul Thrussell from Vauxhall Motors and forward Sylvester Allen while Hughie Pratt has returned to the club from Stevenage.

Wycombe need a convincing victory tomorrow to put last Saturday's 3-1 defeat at Sutton out of their minds. Having slipped to sixth in the table, the Blues need a consistent run-in to the season if they are to stand any chance of catching up on the leaders.
